Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Paden Evans painted fairy books for children complete with all of the fascinating creatures that lay within Fairyland itself. For ages Paden only knew of Fairyland from his dreams. Ashalla Faye was his dreamfaye that guided him through the adventures of his dreams - not too erotic but always adventurous. In his dreams he fell in love with the fairy until the day came when she pushed through from her universe to appear in his. Ashalla Faye was real! What was also very real was a young short kindergarten teacher by the name of Ashley Fay who just happened to look like his fairy lover and who appeared in his books. (Physically sex between fairies and men was laughable - some things were impossible to do even though the desire was there on the part of the fairy!) When Ashalla s sister Priscalla appeared to Paden and kissed him on a dare, the magic of her love for the human man made for her to figure out a way to have the man s baby! In a dream, pretending to be her sister did accomplish the impossible and became pregnant with the man child. When Ashalla found out she was determined to do the same and did in yet another dream. With both sisters pregnant with the baby of the man that they loved life was wonderful until it became evident that the babies were solid only on earth and not in Fairyland. They had to be born on earth or die! Enter the need for the Kindergarten teacher Ashley Fay. In an arrangement getting more weird by the day, Ashley agreed to be the...
