He shall keep regular office hours, other than school hours, for the purpose of issuing permits to pupils applying for admission to the schools, or conferring with teachers and patrons, and of attending to any other business connected with his office. 10. He shall prescribe, subject to the approval of the Board of Education, the course of study and the text-books, which shall be the same for corresponding grades in all the schools. 11. He shall make and enforce such regulations; not in conflict with the general rules of the Board, as he may deem conducive to the best interests of the school. 12. He shall determine the forms of registers, reports, blanks, etc., and shall have the same prepared. He shall see that all records are properly kept, and shall require them...
