Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This collection of thirty poems by novelist Kyrian Lyndon spans decades throughout the author s personal journey. From the soothingly peaceful to the bizarre, Kyrian runs the gamut of complex emotions that will resonate for many. The poems are poignant-honest, open, and straight from the heart, heartbreaking and with humor, embracing light and dark, hope and despair, triumph over adversity. She writes: Oh, for the beauty of the melody, The harmony sprinkled about. He is but a glowing midge Longing to play an Aeolian harp, While holding you still and entranced With the celestial beauty of a god. Ah, but for the pain! The seraphic master sets about casting shadows So that I cannot see the sun, Leaving but a vista of tomorrow s joys and treasures. The current focus becomes a precursor Along the predestined path, A traverse on the bridge. That s my all-too-rigid honeybee, Leaving me with a concave and sunken universe, A hollow path in my heart and my soul. A Dark Rose Blooms also contains an excerpt from Provenance of Bondage, the first book of Kyrian s forthcoming Deadly Veils series. We meet the series protagonist, Danielle DeCorso, as she tries to cope with a devastating event she can t fully remember. She struggles in isolation and despair, as her perception of what she does recall differs from that of her cousin and her friend.
